PROTEST OF MILES.

He Succeeds in Having an Order of Secretary Alger Held up and Will Contest to the Very Last Moment.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Secretary of War Root will have the suppression and punishment of some insurgent war department chiefs on his hands when he returns here. An internecine war among the bureau people has been on nearly a week.

On July 31, the secretary of war issued an order placing the inspector's department, one of the most important in the army, exclusively under the control of the secretary of war, and upsetting all military traditions since the foundation of the military establishment.

General Miles resented this, as there was reason to believe it was intended as a personal affront, the inspector general's department belonging by law to the war department, and to army headquarters.

General Miles made an oral protest against this to Secretary Root and Alger's order was not only held up, but alterations were made which restored the inspector general's department to army headquarters supervision.

All the bureau chiefs who kicked violently at the amendment to the Alger order, are in high feather, and the other chiefs are protesting violently against the insubordination which could permit the appearance of the order.

General Miles is taking the case philosophically, but will present the case formally to the secretary of war.

Acting Secretary of War Meiklejohn, has solved the question so far as he is concerned by deciding to let the Alger order stand and give Mr. Root the opportunity to take the matter up.

It is quite probable that Mr. Root will prepare a new order, as the case has become so intricate that it is not intelligible even to the inspector general or the law department.

Conservative officers on both sides of the case state that Secretary of War Root will see to it that the scandal will be stopped summarily on his return to Washington.

War Reimbursement Law.

Austin, Aug. 9.—The law passed by the Twenty-sixth legislature providing for an appropriation of $100,000 to be used in paying private claims against the state for furnishing supplies and equipments for the Texas volunteers in the late war with Spain will go into effect Aug. 26. Adjutant General Thomas Scurry has submitted the act passed by congress providing for the several states the amounts of their claims to Attorney General Smith for interpretation. It is questionable whether, under that congressional act, some of the claims that have been presented can be allowed. Many claims are now in the hands of the attorney general and they will be audited and paid as soon as the attorney general's opinion above referred to is rendered.

Declined to Surrender Him.

Nashville, Aug. 9.—Governor Millin has declined to surrender Littlefield, for whom Governor Laurin of Mississippi, made request. Littlefield is wanted in Mississippi on charge of murdering three sheriffs and a negro woman while resisting arrest. He is also charged with robbery, burglary and attempted murder at Memphis, and at the residence of Shelby county officials. Governor Millin holds him to be a Tennessee.

Given a Life Term.

Georgetown, Tex., Aug. 9.—In the Judge Cannon case was an hour and returned a verdict of life term for the defendant. He was convicted with the murder of Lawyer Franklin. Cannon's coolness in deserting him when he heard the verdict was noted.

Accidentally Shot.

Tyler, Tex., Aug. 9.—While out with a pistol Amos Hill, colored, shot in the face, the ball entering the tip of the nose and ranging along the nasal cavity, struck the roof of the mouth. The wound is a painful one.

Ex-Officer Dies Suddenly.

Galveston, Tex., Aug. 9.—James Ravey, aged 55, died suddenly of heart failure in his lodging house here. He had lived in Galveston for many years and for a long time was on the police force. He left no relatives.

Holdup Near Mansfield.

Mansfield, Tex., Aug. 9.—L. Graves, who was returning from Alvarado to home, six miles south of this place, was held up by two men and relieved of $10. The robbery occurred near Mount Creek. The new argo was air.

ANTITRUST

St. Louis' Mayor Doing to Promote

WILL HONOR

The Meeting of the States to Crush Trusts and combinations of All Kinds.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—Mayor Ziegenheim announced that ample arrangements will be made for the antitrust meeting of governors and attorney generals to be held in this city on Sept. 20. A suitable hall will be provided and every convenience placed at the disposal of the guests. Details of the arrangements will be announced later, when it is definitely known about how many guests may be expected.

This meeting was called some time ago by Governor Sayers of Texas. He extended a general invitation to all governors and attorney generals of the United States to be present. Replies received from many of them indicated that they would attend and it is believed now that more than three-fourths of the states will be represented.

It appears that Mayor Zeigenheim was under the impression at first that the meeting would not be participated in by Republican officials, but would be purely a Democratic affair. When he learned that the gathering would be non-partisan and a number of governors and attorney generals would be present, he evinced a lively interest in the meeting, and now promises to leave nothing undone to give the visitors a royal welcome and make the meeting a success. The sole object of the gathering is to devise means of exterminating trusts and combinations which control prices of commodities of trade and output of mines, fields, shops and factories.

Yord World announces deemed unquestionable that England has laid guise, and will sieze the African republic and add it to the spoils of her former robberies; and the Boers will have to trek still farther into the heart of Africa and open up another territory, which will also, in its turn, become spoil for the British Lion.
Love of liberty caused the Boers to leave Capé Colony and establish a republic farther inland. England appropriated the territory. The Boers trekked still further, and when they had subdued the savage natives and established human liberty there; the old robber came with superior cunning and strength and the natives crossed the Vaal, and there erected a republic, to go the way of all the others.—Farm

Amite City, La., Aug. 9.—Adolphus, alias Echo Brown, colored, was shot and killed Tuesday night and Edgar and Edward Barr were severely flogged by a gang of armed men. Just at 12 o'clock a body of some 25 or 30 men rode quietly up to the house of Louis Brown, colored, on the edge of town. Ten of the mob armed with shotguns and pistols entered the house and found Echo Brown and Edgar Barr in bed. They told them to get up and throwing sacks over their heads, dragged them out.
Soon as they got out into the road Echo made a futile break for liberty, but had had only gone a little ways when several guns were levelled at him and the contents poured into his back with fatal results. After the killing of Brown, the mob got Edward Barr and severely flogged him.

Bank Robbery Cleared.
Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 9.—The mysterious robbery of the Nelsons bank, the Winnipeg branch, of $62,000, nearly a year ago, was revived here by the arrest of John W. Anderson, formerly a clerk in the bank, now bookkeeper for a wholesale house, charged with theft. It is stated that $60,000 of the sum has been dug up in the outskirts of the city.
The bank has a reward of $10,000 out for any information for the recovery of the money. Anderson is single and about 26 years old.

Victim of Assassination.
Smithville, Tex., Aug. 9. — Bulah Wilson, a mulatto woman, was shot and killed here. The evidence developed at the inquest was that deceased and her husband, Will Wilson, were both asleep in the same bed near a window, when a pistol was fired through the screen window, the contents taking effect in the heart of the deceased. A warrant was sworn out for a negro charging him with the deed. He has not been arrested.

New Primary Law a Success.
San Francisco, Aug. 9.—The first primary election under the new state law and under the direction of the municipal election commissioners, was held Tuesday. It resulted in the complete overthrow of what was known as the "boss" element in both the local Republican and Democratic parties. Mayor James D. Phelan was nominated, by the Democrats while Henry T. Scott, president of the Union Iron works, is the Republican nominee.

Mills Sells to Oil Trust.
Austin, Aug. 9. — Ex-United States Senator Roger Q. Mills, has sold a part of his oil land farm, near Corsicana, to

There are a number of big producing oil wells included in the purchase. Senator Mills retains a big portion of the farm on which are located many oil wells that are bringing him in a princely revenue daily. This farm was worth but a few thousand dollars before oil was struck, less than two years ago.

Blind Negro Attempts Suicide.
Austin, Aug. 9.—Sam Harris, aged 60, a blind negro, attempted to commit suicide by hanging. Harris went to the woods near his home and placed a rope

Cannon Was Convicted.

Georgetown, August 8.—After consuming six days in the trial, argument was concluded in the Cannon murder case today and the charge was delivered to the jury.

Judge Spencer Ford delivered a three-hours speech in behalf of the defendant, and was followed by J. C. Scott, who closed the case.

District Judge Brooks, who has won golden opinions from visiting lawyers, delivered an exhaustive charge to the jury, laying much stress on the temporary insanity clause.

The jury, after remaining out one hour and a half, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree and assessed the penalty at confinement in the penitentiary for life.

Cannon retained his stolidity of countenance while the verdict was being read, and said: "My life has been an eventful one, and today is its most eventful day."

Cannon was convicted of the murder of W. A. Gray at Franklin, Robertson county.—Houston Post.

To the Eagle:—I take pleasure in reporting the progress of the Beck's Big Boll cotton received of you. It is the best formed from the ground and has from 20 to 30 nearly grown bolls to the stalk, and equally as many squares and blooms. Wishing you much success in journalism, I am
